REPORT ON SUMMER BRUNCH

By Jeanne White

On Saturday, July 18, Steve and I were blessed to be able to attend the July Brunch of Las Damas de Baxter, held at Vultee church of Christ. Two former Baxter students who live in the area, Hector Cruz and Jacobo Chalco, were honored guests at this special brunch. Over $2,000 was raised and this money will go towards the Baxter student support.

Steve White informed the group of the political situation in Honduras since the former president, Manuel Zelaya, was arrested and sent from the country on June 30 of this year. He stated that Baxter students were safe on campus and that Calvin and Linda Henry had just safely returned home from Baxter after teaching special classes to both the men and women students.

Rodríguez (a single student) and a married couple, Osbel Triana Brito and Madeline González Lugones.

The 4th year students have now returned from their P.A.M. (missionary apprentice program) and their 3rd quarter of classes have begun.

Howard and Jane Norton arrived on campus June 9! I have heard from Jane and she is settling in nicely.

Delicious food and a time of fellowship were enjoyed by all who attended the Brunch. Thank you, Baxter Ladies, for your hard work and love for the work of Association Amicus.

God bless the work at Baxter Institute and JMA Clinic and God bless the "Baxter Ladies"!

NEWS & NOTES

By Linda Henry

The government transition has affected our Baxter friends, though we can all be proud of their continuing to function under duress. These men, photographed in June with Rene' Rosa, Baxter grad/teacher/director of admissions, show their spirit of joy so commonly seen anywhere they are, regardless of the circumstances.

These 6 student women from 5 countries, all candidates for participation in mission teams, got all prettied up and surprised me with a request for a photo all together the last day of our July 4-17 class "The Role of the Preacher's Wife". I didn't know it was for them to give me the next day, blown up, framed, and signed by each. That is a new custom among all the students with many of their visiting teachers in the last couple of years. A thoughtful touch, a treasure now in our home.

Students have been seeking extra ways to socialize during their days of more restricted movement, and the women have gone together in a Baxter vehicle to do grocery shopping. Other than not leaving campus so often, life continues about the same. The business of assignments and classes are topics of daily conversations. For now, we just pray for them, the staff and faculty, the classes and the return to normality, as they function daily in calm on campus.
